Age Of Aquarius?

Now come a number of astronomers who, after arcane calculating and dividing, tell us that this is not the age of Aquarius and it won't be for 600 years. Because of a slight wobble in the rotation of the earth, the astrological calendar, devised more than 2,000 years ago, is invalid. The wobble was noticed by Hipparchus in 125 B.C. and explained by Newton in the 17th century. Yet astrologers generally stick by the old inaccurate calendar.

That having been said and well understood, one wonders why the scientists made such an effort to offer evidence contrary to the assurances of the popular song which says the Age of Aquarius is here and along with it, love, harmony, and peace throughout the world. One doesn't need a scientist to tell him that just isn't so. — Charlotte (N.C.) News

Breaking An Egg

A woman's magazine has published a cookbook, written "exclusively for young married women 18-34." Included are instructions on "how to break an egg." Experience suggests that one of the easiest ways is to drop it on the floor. — Charleston (S.C.) News and Courier

The Latest Claim

The American Dairy Association has won a round over a Ralph Nader backed satellite, "Public Interest Research Group."

Better Business Bureaus, Inc., ruled in favor of the dairymen's radio and television theme concerning "The New You" commercials. The Nader law group had challenged the claims. The National Advertising Division of the BBB noted "...claims being for milk are those which, generally speaking, have been made for milk for years." We'll go along with the ADA's visual cartoon fantasy of a before-and-after transformation of a bedraggled stewardess. But we'd like some proof, in our age and at these prices, of the bumperstickers we've seen that proclaim:

Sentencing of the three was delayed pending a presentence report.

Democrats Need Wallace in Order to Beat Nixon

By GREGG HERRINGTON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats need Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace in their corner if they are to unseat President Nixon, according to several Southern officeholders.

And, they said, if such an alliance requires liberal elements of the party to bend Wallace's way on some issues, they must do it or write off the South.

The assessments came in interviews and statements from several governors and senators Wednesday, after Wallace won the Florida Democratic primary with 42 per cent of the vote.

South Carolina Gov. John C. West said Wallace "could well do for the Democratic party what Sen. Strom Thurmond did for the Republicans" in 1968, campaigning for the presidential candidate throughout the region.

Georgia Sen. David H. Gambrell said the governor "has now become a national candidate" with populist-oriented issues. Gambrell said Wallace "has a good chance to go on to become nominated at the convention unless the party leadership accepts the issues that he is making as being their cause rather than exclusively his cause."

Sen. James B. Allen of Alabama said Wallace's victory made him either the candidate or the kingmaker of the Democratic convention in Miami Beach next July.

"If Wallace does not win the Democratic nomination," Allen said, "he will certainly have considerable influence in deciding who does."

Sen. Ernest F. Hollings, of South Carolina said Wallace's victory pinpoints the issues bothering Americans, and the Democrats had better "learn a lesson" from the Alabama governor.

Wallace's campaign was chiefly antibusing. His speeches also criticized the plight of the average American who faces increasingly high taxes.

"Being against busing that destroys a community is not racist," Hollings said. "That's clear to the fellow running the filling station. 'It's not clear to the national candidates.'"

Even Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said Wallace "has gained considerably as a result of his victory and, in my opinion, he is a force to be reckoned with. He is campaigning on issues of concern to the people, like tax reform."

ITT Promises List of Files Firm Destroyed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harold S. Geneen, president of International Telephone & Telegraph Corp., has promised to provide the Senate Judiciary Committee a list of files purposely destroyed in the company's Washington office two weeks ago.

Ailing ITT lobbyist Dita Beard has been quoted as saying her Washington files were shredded by ITT security agents from New York after columnist Jack Anderson published a memorandum, allegedly written by Mrs. Beard, that has delayed Senate confirmation of Atty. Gen. designate Richard G. Kleindienst.

The memorandum resulted in the suggestion that the out-of-court settlement of three anti-trust suits against ITT was connected with the conglomerate's financial pledge to San Diego in

Bangladesh Aid Cut by 60 Per Cent

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has canceled more than 60 per cent of the $158 million President Nixon has said was committed for humanitarian relief in Bangladesh, State Department officials say.

Although department spokesman Charles W. Bray stated earlier this week that the $158-million figure is an "accurate statement of the commitment," other officials now indicate $97.8 million has been cut off "because it is no longer needed."

The disclosure seems sure to rekindle the quarrel between the department and Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, who has accused the administration of misleading the public over the aid.

American commitment to the nation formerly known as East Pakistan.

Department sources told The Associated Press $44.2 million in food and a small amount of home-building materials were delivered to East Pakistan between November 1970 when the nation was devastated by a cyclone and December 1971 when the Indian-Pakistani war broke out.

Since aid was resumed this year, the officials said, about $16 million has been delivered, is on the way or is available for shipment.

"The rest of it has been canceled," one State Department official said, because the original purpose of the assistance, to prevent famine, has been accomplished.

Selling Experience

SELL BIKES FOR EXPERIENCE—Mike Tolleson and Richard Sallee, Hope, are members of the Advanced Management Policy Class at Henderson State College that has established a company to sell bicycles on the college campus to gain practical experience in business management. The class will sell regular bicycles, 3-speed bikes, and 10-speed bicycles through May 1 at a profit at a competitive price with all proceeds being donated to a local charity or worthy cause in Arkadelphia, according to James Tatum, HSC assistant professor of business administration and instructor for the course. The sales will be directed primarily at students on the Henderson State College and Ouachita Baptist University campus, but anyone may purchase a bike.

More Cuts in Europe

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration is undertaking new studies that could bring cuts in Army support, headquarters and advisory elements in Europe.

The goal would be to trim the Army's tail in Europe without blunting its teeth, Pentagon sources say. One possible option could result in some increase in combat power by reshuffling personnel.

The studies were prompted by congressional pressure to reduce the U.S. troop commitment in Europe and by the need to make better use of manpower at a time when the size of the Army is being cut sharply.

The Army now accounts for about 195,000 of the 310,000 U.S. troops in Europe. Of the remainder, the Air Force numbers about 70,000 and the Navy and Marines about 45,000.

The combat elements of four and one-third Army divisions and two armored-cavalry regiments total about 65,000 men. Nearly another 25,000 soldiers man antiaircraft missile batteries.

Top U.S. military and civilian leaders resist any suggestion that American combat power can be shaved in Europe, where the U.S. 7th Army is the core of NATO's ground defense.

This leaves about 105,000 men in support roles, and it is here that Army manpower experts are searching for places to trim.

Another Strike Threat

WASHINGTON (AP) — A renewed dock strike, which could also involve East and Gulf Coast ports, probably would take another act of Congress to stop. The board planned to resume deliberations on the contract today.

"There's a cut coming," a nonlabor source predicted. "I've got a sure nine votes, and a probable 10."

Eight votes are required for a majority of the 15-member board. The five labor members support full approval of the longshore pact.

Harry Bridges, president of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, said last Feb. 29 he would lead his men on strike if the board cut the contract "by as much as one cent."

He has repeated the threat since, and said last week that a cut would so incense his members that he couldn't stop them from striking. Although Bridges has said the International Longshoremen's Association would join him by striking East and Gulf Coast ports, ILA officials have refused to confirm a pledge of joint action.

The ILWU pact, containing a first-year pay raise estimated officially at up to 21.5 per cent, ended a 134-day strike of West Coast ports.

Congress gave President Nixon authority to impose an arbitrated settlement of that walk-out, but the union settled voluntarily before Nixon signed the measure. A Labor Department spokesman says that authority could not be used to halt a renewed walkout.

The Pay Board source who predicted a cut in the pact would not estimate how deep it might be. "It's still in the pick-anumber stage," he said.

Communists Step Up Lowland Attacks

SAIGON (AP) — Communist forces stepped up their attacks in South Vietnam's populous coastal lowlands Wednesday and today while Saigon's army pressed its offensive in eastern Cambodia.

The South Vietnamese command reported 41 enemy attacks between dawn Wednesday and dawn today, the highest number in a 24-hour period since Feb. 7. The hardest hit region was Quang Ngai Province, on the coast about 75 miles south of Da Nang.

Thirty-one South Vietnamese were killed and 44 were wounded in four attacks in Quang Ngai, at a cost of six enemy killed, the command said. The South Vietnamese victims included 18 civilians killed and 28 wounded, and 57 homes, a Buddhist pagoda and a school were heavily damaged.

Another 10 North Vietnamese and five South Vietnamese troops were killed in Binh Dinh Province, just south of Quang Ngai.

The targets of most of the attacks were militia units assigned the job of local security while the army tries to keep North Vietnamese regulars away from the cities and towns. Meanwhile, South Vietnamese regulars destroyed the fourth major Communist camp found in their week-old drive in eastern Cambodia, the Saigon command reported.

An infantry task force from the 7,000-man drive found the 500-man training center in a heavily wooded region 85 miles northwest of Saigon and 15 miles inside Cambodia. The camp was deserted, but spokesmen said the task force burned it down.

Three other base camps have been reported destroyed by U.S. B52 bombers since the operation was launched last Friday. A South Vietnamese communique today said ground forces on Wednesday found the bodies of 75 enemy soldiers killed by the air strikes.

Officers said the entire area west of Tay Ninh is one large complex of enemy bases, but only two significant ground clashes have been reported because the bulk of the estimated 20,000 North Vietnamese troops in Eastern Cambodia are reported north and east of the South Vietnamese force, and so far the Saigon troops have not pursued them.

U.S. fighter-bombers resumed the attack on North Vietnam after a three-day lapse. They fired two missiles at two anti-aircraft radar sites which the U.S. Command said threatened American planes attacking the Ho Chi Minh trail in Laos. Results of the strikes 25 and 90 miles north of the demilitarized zone were not known, the command said.

This raised to 95 the number of air attacks on North Vietnam reported by the U.S. Command this year.

Agnew Says Wallace Treated Unfairly

By JERRY BROWN
Associated Press Writer

Vice President Spiro T. Agnew says Alabama Gov. George Wallace has been the subject of a lot of unfair political innuendo even though there was nothing radical about his campaigning for this week's Florida primary.

"I haven't heard him say anything that I would consider radical during that campaign," Agnew said Wednesday during a speech at Drake University in Des Moines.

But, Agnew added, "it seems to be the general impression—and this is again characteristic of the political innuendo that streaks back and forth across the nation...that he is somewhat of a reactionary person who is trying to deprive the minority groups of their freedom and bring out the worst of their emotions, causing us to divide as a people."

Agnew said that "something Gov. Wallace was saying must have struck a responsive chord in more than just the people of one section of Florida."

Wallace received 42 per cent of the vote in Tuesday's Democratic primary in Florida. Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota placed second with 18 per cent, followed by Sen. Henry Jackson of Washington at 13 per cent and Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine at 9 per cent.

Agnew was critical of a statement by Muskie denouncing Wallace's victory.

"When a man wins an election he shouldn't be referred to as a demagogue," Agnew said.

Wallace will compete next in the April 4 Wisconsin primary, where he got 24 per cent of the vote in 1964. He declined to predict how well he will do this year, but said "we know that the average citizen in Wisconsin, and other states, in my judgment, feels just like they do in Florida."

However, Humphrey said he considers the issues in Wisconsin far different from those in Florida.

"I don't consider the Wisconsin electorate the same as the Florida electorate," Humphrey said at a news conference in Milwaukee.

Wisconsin's primary includes all 11 Democrats who were on the Florida ballot plus Rep. Patsy Mink of Hawaii.

Muskie, viewed by many as the Democratic front-runner before Florida, enters Wisconsin as an underdog, according to his state campaign manager.

Muskie also is competing in next Tuesday's Illinois primary, where he is challenged on separate fronts by Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota and former Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota.

Muskie and McGovern are competing for a share of the 160 national convention delegates who will be elected Tuesday.

However, McGovern is not entered in the separate preferential contest which heads the Illinois ballot. Muskie and McCarthy are the only contestants in that battle.

Knows of Only One Opponent

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Dale Bumpers said Wednesday he had heard of no possible Democratic opponent to his reelection bid this year other than state Rep. George Davis of Horatio, who has already filed.

The governor said he would not ignore Davis' candidacy. Bumpers also told newsmen that he would fill a vacancy on the University of Arkansas Board of Trustees today.

Alagood in State Secretary Race

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Sen. Oscar Alagood of Little Rock Wednesday became the third declared candidate for the seat of Secretary of State Kelly Bryant, who has not announced whether he will run for a sixth term.

The other announced candidates are Vernon Whitten, a Bearden businessman, and John L. "Jack" Riggs of North Little Rock, formerly an administrative assistant to Bryant.

In making his announcement, Alagood said there had been reports of "doubts, confusion, indecision and uncertainty," in the office. He said this had particularly arisen in the controversies over state printing contracts and keeping the Capitol building open on weekends to visitors.

Alagood said he wanted to "insure that the office will return to the people of Arkansas."

He said he had been thinking of running for secretary of state for some time. He acknowledged that the 1971 legislative reapportionment that placed him in the same district with Sen. Ben Allen of Little Rock had a bearing on his decision.

Alagood, a native of Marietta, Okla., is a former radio and television newsmen. He came to Little Rock in 1950 from Oklahoma City.

Explosion Rips Home Here

During the noon hour Thursday an explosion at the home of Vic Massanelli on Hempstead Street blew the door and facing and all the front wall out of a utility room, damaged two other brick walls. The family auto was badly damaged by flying brick.

Firemen said the explosion apparently was caused from a gas leak in a clothes dryer. Mrs. Massanelli was in the room at the time and apparently was not injured but was hospitalized for examination.

Cold Front Touches Off Some Violent Weather

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A cold front that touched off violent weather in Arkansas has moved through the area and springlike weather has returned to the state.
The long-range forecast calls for fair skies and mild temperatures through the weekend.
The cold front moved into the western portion of Arkansas about noon Wednesday and then proceeded across the state. Precipitation began in northwest Arkansas as light showers and increased rapidly as the front moved eastward.
Several funnel clouds were reported and there were numerous reports of small hail. No major damage was reported.
Skies had cleared over most of the state this morning with predominantly westerly winds bringing in drier air.
A large high drifted into Arkansas behind the cold front, producing the fair weather.
Highs today should be in the mid 60s north to low 70s south with similar readings forecast for Friday.

Probated Sentence for Mutscher

By MIKE COCHRAN
Associated Press Writer
ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — Speaker Gus Mutscher, flanked by his wife and his attorneys, declared Thursday he is innocent of bribery conspiracy and "in time will be completely vindicated."
Mutscher emerged from the courtroom after he and two aides were assessed probated five-year sentences.
"God knows I am innocent," he read from a prepared statement. "I have lived my life dedicated to the proposition that ours is a government of law and not of men."
"I am disappointed and distressed at the verdict of the jury, but I have not lost faith in our system."
The speaker said he understands how the jury was persuaded that the verdict was right, adding: "They, like many good citizens of our state, have been subjected to an incessant deluge of publicity, for the most part adverse and critical."
He continued, "I want to publicly thank the thousands of people of every walk of life from every part of Texas who have called and written offering their help and sympathy and their understanding. God bless all of them."

ASU Board Won't Meet

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A special meeting of the Arkansas State University Board of Trustees that had been called for 9 a.m. today at Newport was cancelled late Wednesday.
Phillip Hout of Newport, newest member of the board, said the meeting had been set for his office to consider personnel matters.
He said the meeting was set at the request of board member W.P. Guley of Little Rock.
Guley said late Wednesday, however, that he would be unable to attend because of the press of business.
The meeting was proposed to meet with ASU administrators to get a rundown on faculty contracts, salaries, performance and so on, Guley said.
Guley said the matters probably can be considered at the next regular board meeting, which is April 1.
Board Chairman Austin Temple of Crossett was out of the state Wednesday on business.
Newsmen had been told by some sources that the board likely would consider the contract of Dr. Bill Stroud, who was fired by the administration two years ago and later rehired by the board.

Tennessee Adjournment

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Adjournment by March 31.
That's what House Speaker James McKinney predicted Wednesday as the Tennessee General Assembly completed the 70th working day of the 90 allowed it during the current biennium.
"We'll be out by the 31st. We'll take the budget, cut it by 10 per cent, and pass it next week," the speaker said. "We'll vote on legislative reapportionment Wednesday."
McKinney said the Senate had promised 19 votes to pass the reapportionment plan.
One portion of a reapportionment plan was introduced Wednesday by Rep. Ned McWhorter, D-Dresden, the House Democratic Caucus chairman, who offered a Senate district realignment proposal.
The realignment is designed to change the size of the district to conform to the 1970 census as required by the state constitution.
McWhorter's plan would leave Middle and West Tennessee districts virtually unchanged.

Arkla Curtailments Will Continue

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — An official of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. said Wednesday that sharp curtailments of gas to large industries in the state will continue until 1974 in spite of Arkla's plans to build a pipeline to reach new gas reserves in the Anadarko Basin of Texas and Oklahoma.

Clayton said the Federal

Ballot Boxes Guarded

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP) — W.O. Byrd of Morrilton, who won re-election to the Morrilton School Board Tuesday by defeating an opponent by 42 votes, said he had employed private detectives to watch ballot boxes in the Conway County Courthouse vault until the election results are certified and there is no chance for a recount.

Byrd defeated T.J. Mahan, who was supported by Sheriff Marlin Hawkins, a political power in county and state politics for a number of years.
Asked why he hired the guards, Byrd said, "I haven't been led to believe that anything was going to happen," but he wanted to insure that "everything was straight."
Byrd, 41, said a guard was stationed in the courthouse during the day and outside at night. He said the security man could see the vault at night because the area was lighted.
Hawkins said Byrd's action was "ridiculous." He said as far as he was concerned the election was over and Mahan had been defeated.
"As far as I'm concerned, Mahan got beat," the sheriff said.
Hawkins said he supported Mahan. "Everyone has their personal choice," he said. "I was interested in what I thought was best for our schools and our children."
Mahan could not be reached for comment.

Plan to Recruit Objectors Fails

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan's administration says a plan to recruit conscientious objectors for California's Ecology Corps has failed.
But Director Joe Griggs says the over-all program has been a success, primarily because other volunteers from the ranks of the unemployed have signed up.
Some corpsmen called the environmental protection work force, created by the Reagan administration a year ago to give conscientious objectors an alternative to the Army, a farce and slave labor.
Griggs called COs "rabble rousers."
Griggs and the corpsmen clashed Wednesday before a state Senate budget committee reviewing the first year operation of the program.

Nathaniel Stone, a 23-year-old CO corpsman from San Jose, said the corps was a "farce and blatant attempt by the governor to dupe the people of the state into believing he is doing something about the ecological crisis when he is not."
Stone said the corpsmen are assigned to do such things as move "rocks around to make campgrounds more aesthetically pleasing," build picnic tables and relocate recreation equipment.
He said suggestions by members of the corps for work which he said would benefit the environment frequently met with the response that no funds were available.

Another Yellow Creek Road Bridge Is Unsafe!

East End of Bridge

East End of Bridge

A funeral procession crossed this dangerous bridge Monday, February 21, 1972 for burial in the Yellow Creek Cemetery. Before time for the procession, a broken hearted daughter of the deceased mother drove down to the bridge and tried to place the two unanchored runners more securely in their proper places.
The people who travel this road daily in cars, pickups, trucks, the school bus and rural mail car cannot understand the reason our County Judge Finis Odom will permit the bridges on this road to get in this condition before making any necessary repairs.
Photo at left: This picture was taken February 27, 1972. This bridge is approximately 35 or 40 feet long with a drop of 10 or 12 feet from top of flooring to the bottom of the creek. The hole is on the East End of the bridge. The two planks of the runner on the left have come loose - meaning the nails have come out - leaving the planks not anchored down, whatsoever. At times when vehicles cross this section, the unanchored planks move out of position, making this spot more dangerous.

Photo at right: This picture was also taken February 27, 1972. This picture is the same rotted out hole as the picture at left, with the two unanchored runner planks moved to one side in order to show more of the fallen out bridge flooring. Still this does not show the extent of the fallen out pieces since the runner on the left is still nailed down and covers the hole underneath it.
Bridges in this condition could cause accidents with injuries or even death. A few years ago one of the bridges fell in with a log truck; lucky the driver escaped without any injuries. Since this accident, the present County Judge has been asked repeatedly to keep the bridges on this road in safe condition. He has NOT done so. Yet he is asking for another two years in office.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Danny Thomas, who keeps his hand in television these days as a guest star on other people's shows, had a special of his own Wednesday night on ABC.

The star sang a couple of songs and tried a few jokes but for the most part played the rather subdued host to his guest stars and—most unusual—straight man for other people's jokes.

The device on which the hour was built was as old as Jack Benny, who may have invented it: Danny came out to announce he wanted the audience to see the troubles he had during rehearsals of the show. The rest was a flashback to the rehearsals and the comedy sketches.

There was a department store number with Don Knotts playing a consumer fraud investigator on the prowl for sharp practice, wearing pantiyose in pursuit of duty.

Another kidded TV commercial with a production number starring dancer Juliet Prowse and a chorus doing a miniature Busby Berkeley routine in the lounge of what appeared to be a plane wider and longer than a 747. Miss Prowse and Totie Fields—who seems to have replaced Phyllis Diller this season as the busiest traveler on the TV comedy-variety show circuit—demonstrated what life would be like if women became hooked on TV sports. The ladies drank beer and cheered as the men in their lives wore aprons and fretted about the roast in the oven. It was as familiar as Danny's introduction: "I'm not against women's lib, but ..."

Until the last sketch, Bob Hope almost literally telephoned in his part. A continuing gag had Hope telephoning from Peking, Moscow and some South Seas paradise explaining

Helen Bottel Helen Help Us!

Is Little Faker a Phony?

DEAR RAP:

My girl friend is a phony. She makes herself up to be something she isn't. I mean if I wanted Raquel Welch, I'd go out hunting.

She wears a wig that isn't the same color as her hair. She cakes on makeup when she's good-looking without it, and last night I found out she was wearing falsies!

She is also kind and understanding and has a great personality. How do I tell her that I like her better as herself—no offense intended?—MR. QRPB

DEAR MR. Q:

(I'm curious to know how you found out about the falsies, huh?) If she's so "fake" and repulsive, how come you started liking her? Guys usually go by looks first—then discover personality.

But now that you know she's also kind and understanding, tell her a girl this good-looking shouldn't hide it with a mask. (It might turn out she isn't, and you'll want her to put it back on.)—SUE

DEAR QRPB:

(I'm curious to know what those initials stand for, huh?)

Your letter reminds us of something we read in a local weekly fun sheet:

Dear Miss Lovelorn: When my wife gets ready for bed she takes off her falsies, eyelashes, make-up, wig, waist cincher and something she calls a "fanny-fattener." This is getting to me; what should I do?—FAKED OUT

Dear F.O.: Sleep in the drawer, seeing as how that's where the best parts of her go!—MISS L.

DEAR YOU TWO:

A last word on the flag patch business which really amused me. All that hubbub over "defacing" the flag—and you two overlooked an obvious rebuttal. The Government has a United States Flag eight-cent stamp! It gets licked, franked, stamped, cancelled, torn and defaced. I've seen no complaints from patriots that it would be taken out of circulation.

So-o-o-o, here's a vote for your side, from—A GREAT GRANDMOTHER

DEAR GREAT:

Thanks, great-grand, we needed that!—HELEN AND SUE

DEAR HELEN AND SUE:

Last year when I was freshman it was Dullsville. I mean I was really out of it: no friends, especially girls, with whom I scored Zero.

Now this year, as a sophomore, I've changed and become more outgoing. Which is fine except now there are five very fine and nice girls I like, and they seem to like me.

I don't want to hurt anybody's feelings and I'd hate to be called a five-timer. If you like them all equally, how do you choose?

P.S. I'm not girl crazy.—IN TOO DEEP TO GET OUT

DEAR ITDGO:

If there are five girls you LIKE, you have no problem. If there are five girls you LOVE—THEN you have a problem!

Keep it friendly, get to know them better, and pretty soon the field will narrow down—either through personality clashes or because some will go on to different guys. Whatever, don't start weeding them out too soon, or you might be back playing memories of your freshman year.—SUE

DEAR IN:

Maybe you aren't ready for real dates yet—which is why you consider girls good buddies rather than girl friends. Enjoy your new popularity, let the girls compete for a while, play a little hard to get (exclusively), and save your money. (Dates are expensive, y'know.) Five girls on a loose string are cheaper than one tied up as a steady.—HELEN

(GOT A PROBLEM? Or a subject for discussion, two-generation style? Direct your questions to either Sue or Helen Bottel—or both, in care of this newspaper, if you want a combination mother-daughter answer.)

Things You Want to Do

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Things a man would rather be doing than throwing spitballs at a secretary or looking out the window on a rainy day in March:

Raiding a gold-laden galleon on the Spanish main.

Trading platitudes with Plato. Having your cake and eating it, too.

Inventing a money tree for wives.

Sitting in a coach seat on an airplane that was really as comfortable as the airlines claim they are.

Working for a boss who respects you so much he calls you sahib or bwana.

Stumbling across an abandoned house and finding its basement full of thousands of expensive chinchilla pelts.

Cornering the tomato ketchup market for all of Hollywood's new epics of bloody violence.

Eating a 15-cent ice-cream soda like they used to make when the world was younger.

Sewing a pretty girl back together after a magician had sawed her in half.

Swimming around a reef with a mermaid off Australia.

Asking someone who was weighed in the scales and found wanting, "Just what was it you were wanting?"

Attending an orgy in a wax museum.

Pampering Raquel Welch. Teaching digits to midgits. Going for a walk through Times Square at high noon with Howard Hughes.

Landing a lifetime job as beach inspector on the island of Bali.

Opening cans of worms for the McGraw-Hill book company.

Yes, there are lots of better ways to spend the month of March than treading the same old treadmill. Go for a walk on a new one.

Revival Meet in Progress

A revival meeting is now underway at the First United Pentecostal Church at 4th and Ferguson Streets. The Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth DeHart of Houston, Texas are the evangelists. The meetings are held nightly at 7 o'clock according to the Pastor.

Rep. Mills Gets Award

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., was named Tuesday as 1972 recipient of the National Brotherhood Award of the Arkansas branch of the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

The 9th annual award will be presented April 20 at a dinner the NCCJ said about 2,000 persons would attend.

Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass., is scheduled to speak at the occasion.

Youth Choir Awards

The Youth Choir of Unity Baptist Church of Hope sang in competition at the annual Youth Choir Festival held at Central Baptist College in Conway last week.

Unity Youth Choir, under the direction of Bob Hand, came in second place in state competition to win the Blue Ribbon Award. The choirs were graded on Tone, Diction, Balance, Interpretation, Intonation, Technique, Musical effect, and other factors such as choice of music, discipline and stage appearance.

In winning, Unity Youth Choir scored two superiors and one just less than superior. Wendel McCorkle is the pianist for the choir.

Player Primed to Have Best Year

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Gary Player is primed and ready to make 1972 his best year ever in the United States—if he doesn't get homesick too soon.

"I had a round of 75 last week," the little South African recalled today before teeing off in the first round of the $125,000 Greater Jacksonville Open Golf Tournament, "and I might as well not have been there."

"I just suddenly got so homesick you couldn't believe it. I didn't have my mind on my game. I couldn't concentrate at all. It was just awful."

He rallied for a final round 66, however, and advanced to a tie for 10th in the Florida Citrus Open, giving him two top 10 finishes in three starts in this country this year. With $12,600 in earnings, he's averaging more than $4,000 a start.

The muscular little rancher from Johannesburg won this tournament last year—the first of two consecutive triumphs—and used it as a springboard to one of his best seasons in this country.

He won more than $120,000 despite cutting his American tour to only 14 starts.

And there's no telling how many he may play this year.

"I'll play through the Masters, but beyond that I just have no plans right now," Player said. "I really don't know what I'll do."

"I get awfully lonesome for my family. I've tried to explain it to players over here but they just can't seem to understand how it is."

"You know, when I was leaving this time, my little girl came to me and said, 'You're not like other daddies. Other daddies are here all the time. You're here just a little while and then you're gone so long.'"

"That can tear you up."

A Good Decision for the Celtics

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — "We tried him at forward and at center, and finally decided to leave him at center," Red Auerbach, president and general manager of the Boston Celtics, said of second-year man Dave Cowens.

"It was a very good decision."

Good for Cowens, and good for the Celtics as well.

With the 6-foot-9, 230-pounder from Florida State in the middle, Boston's rebuilding plans in the post-Bill Russell era have progressed even faster than Auerbach could have hoped.

The Celtics attained one goal in their rebuilding plans Wednesday night, when they clinched at least a tie for first place in the Atlantic Division of the National Basketball Association by rallying for a 120-115 victory over the Philadelphia 76ers.

Cowens, one of the keys to the Celtics' rebuilding, scored 17 of his 24 points in the final quarter against Philadelphia. He netted eight in a row after team captain John Havlicek had tied the score 104-104 with 5:31 left.

In other NBA games, Phoenix nipped Milwaukee 110-106, Los Angeles edged Cincinnati 121-116 and Atlanta trounced Seattle 134-96.

By beating Philadelphia, Boston moved six games in front of the idle New York Knicks. Boston had five games remaining before the playoffs, New York has seven.

Charlie Scott, the leading scorer in the ABA this season, made his NBA debut with the Phoenix Suns, coming off the bench with 3:41 to go in the first quarter and scoring 11 points. Scott joined the Suns Monday after jumping from the Virginia Squires of the ABA.

Connie Hawkins scored 20 points in the second half as the Hawks erased a 50-52 halftime deficit. Kareem Abdul Jabbar tallied 36 points for the Bucks.

Jim McMillan scored 11 points in a fourth quarter Lakers rally. Cincinnati, playing its first home game since it was announced that the franchise would be switched to

Selection Jolts Bill

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "Bill," The Associated Press just named you Player of the Year in college basketball."

An ear-jarring shriek jolted the carpeted UCLA locker room but the tall, youthful lad covered with soap in the shower merely displayed a wide grin and said softly, "Wow, that's great."

Bill Walton, UCAL's 6-foot-11 19-year-old sophomore, is a rare breed who thinks almost more of his teammates and their feelings than he does of himself. And Tommy Curtis' raucous reaction to Walton's receiving the AP's highest individual college basketball honor is typical of his teammates' feeling for him.

In the pressure cooker world of college basketball, Walton is an anomaly. He's been called the most dominating influence in the game since Lew Alcindor, now Kareem Jabbar, yet he plays the game with a grin and chuckle.

"If you ask him how he feels about being named the nation's best player," said UCLA coach John Wooden, "he'll probably tell you he owes it all to his teammates." And those are his true feelings. He's very concerned that his teammates won't get the recognition they deserve because of him.

Asked his reaction to being named the nation's best, Walton said:

"It's a great honor but my teammates made it possible."

Walton is shy. He smiles readily yet is reluctant to talk to reporters with his teammates around. His words are carefully chosen.

But why does he grin and laugh so much on the court, in the heat of action?

"Why not? It's only a game and games are supposed to be fun, so we go out there to have fun."

midseason after waging a battle with Craig Morton, wants to call his own plays but said, "I don't plan to make an issue of it."

Coach Tom Landry called the signals in the stretch drive to the Superbowl and shuttled the tight ends with plays as Dallas defeated Miami 24-3.

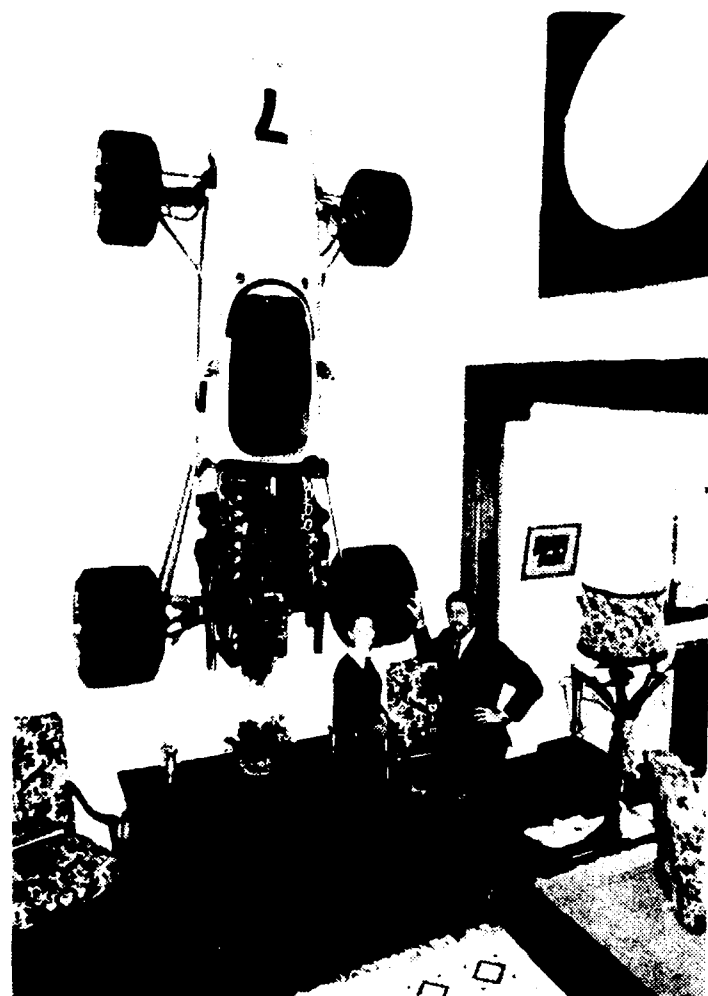

"I don't want a wedge driven between me and Coach Landry on the subject," Staubach said. "It will come in time. I know what he demands of me."

"Coach Landry is a hard man to get to know. But he is a competitor. He has that quiet look but down deep he is a competitor. I would do anything for him."

Staubach, 29, said he hoped to play another six or seven years. He will enter his fourth season with the Cowboys in July.

On another subject, Staubach said he hoped troubled running back Duane Thomas works out his problems with the Cowboys.

"I tried to get to know him but I didn't understand him," Staubach said.

YOU CAN TELL what Joachim Bonnier does for a living as he and his wife stand in their living room at Le Muids, Switzerland. The wall decoration is a complete McLaren/BRM Formula II racing car. Bonnier, a Swede, joined an increasing colony of racing drivers making their homes in Switzerland.

Accounting for the fast 1 mile and 70 yards in 1:43, the winner paid $3, $2.40 and $2.40. Fleet Grounded returned $4 and $4 and outsider Loco Ribot returned $8.40 for show.

Apprentice jockey Rick Houghten booted home two winning longshots, Randall Drive in the first and Able Man in the third.

Ouachita Eliminated

KANSAS CITY (AP) — St. Thomas eliminated Ouachita Baptist University from the NAIA national basketball tournament here Wednesday by defeating the Tigers 93-87.

The Tigers, down as much as 14 points with less than 10 minutes to play, came within one point with 4:21 left, 78-77, when Jim Hamilton sank two free throws.

The Toms, however, ran off five straight points and seemed to be coasting to victory until Tommy Patterson hit two straight jumpers to make it 87-85 with 55 seconds remaining.

The two teams swapped baskets before 7-foot-3 Robert Rosier dropped in a final-second shot to ice the victory for St. Thomas.

Ouachita, champ of the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference and of the NAIA District 17, last led 25-24 with 9:50 left in the first half.

Jim Hamilton paced Ouachita with 27 points. Patterson contributed 19 and Maurice Scarbrough had 12 before fouling out in the first half.

Rosier led the Toms with 30 points.

All-America Team Is Headed by Bill Walton

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Walton, UCLA's lantern-jawed tower of strength, and Dwight Lamar, the nation's leading scorer from Southwestern Louisiana, were named today to the Associated Press' 1971-72 All-America basketball team.

The two stars, both dominating forces in their regions, were joined by Ed Ratleff of Long Beach State, Jim Chones of Marquette's and Tom Riker of North Carolina.

Walton, a 6-foot-11 center and the only sophomore on the first team, has been compared favorably to Kareem Abdul Jabbar (nee Lew Alcindor) and Bill Russell in their college days.

"I've never seen a player who makes the outlet pass and starts the fast break as well," said UCLA Coach John Wooden, who coached Jabbar and saw Russell play at San Francisco.

Lamar, one of the best shooters in the country in recent history, could become the only player to win the scoring title in both the college and university divisions.

The 6-foot-1 ace was the college division leader last season when the Ragin' Cajuns were in that class and appears well on his way this year now that they've stepped up to major college status. He's averaging 36.7 a game in his junior year.

Ratleff, a junior guard who averaged almost 22 points a game this year, also was one of the team's toughest rebounders. Strong and quick at 6-6, Ratleff has been described as the best college guard in America since the day of Oscar Robertson and Jerry West.

The 6-11 Chones was Marquette's big strength before signing with the New York Nets of the American Basketball Association late in the season. Before leaving college, he scored almost 21 points and averaged 12 rebounds in 21 games of his junior season.

The 6-10 Riker, the only senior on the big team, was an outstanding forward in clutch situations. He averaged nearly 20 points and 10 rebounds a game.

"He's the best pro prospect in the country," said South Carolina Coach Frank McGuire of the beefy Riker.

Based on votes from sports writers and broadcasters around the nation, the second team All-America included Barry Parkhill of Virginia, Dwight Davis of Houston, Jim Price of Louisville, Henry Bibby of UCLA and Robert McAdoo of North Carolina.

The third team included Richie Fuqua of Oral Roberts; Princeton's Brian Taylor; Maryland's Tom McMillen; Bud Stallworth of Kansas, and Wil Robinson of West Virginia.

NEW YORK (AP) — Honorable mentions on the 1971-72 college basketball All-America team as selected by the Associated Press on the basis of votes from sports writers and sportscasters: Henry Wilmore, Michigan; Russell Lee, Marshall; Tom Burleson, North Carolina State; Bob Morse, Penn; Bill Chamberlain, North Carolina; Tracy Tripucka, Lafayette; Luke Witte, Ohio State; Harold Fox, Jacksonville; Greg Kohls, Syracuse; John Brown, Missouri; Alan Hornyak, Ohio State.

Bob Nash, Hawaii; Fred Boyd, Oregon State; Steve Hawes, Washington; Kresimir Cosic, Brigham Young; Mel Davis, St. John's, N.Y.; Hank Siemionowski, Villanova; Kevin Joyce, South Carolina; Arnie Berman, Brown; Wendell Hudson, Alabama; Jim Andrews, Kentucky; Mike Edwards, Tennessee; Tom Parker, Kentucky; Dennis Wuycik, North Carolina; Roy Ebron, Southwestern Louisiana.

Ernie DiGregorio, Providence; Marvin Barnes, Providence; Doug Collins, Illinois State; Larry Finch, Memphis State; Corky Calhoun, Penn; Allie McGuire, Marquette; Ron Thomas, Louisville; Bob Lackey, Marquette; Ernie Fleming, Jacksonville; John Gianelli, Pacific U.; Paul Stovall, Arizona State; John Williamson, New Mexico State; Richie Garner, Manhattan; Kermit Washington, American U.

Perry Proves He Is Ready

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer

Start the season, Mr. Schemm. Two of Cleveland's most important Indians are ready right now.

Distressed over the poorest record in baseball last season, General Manager Gabe Paul did a little shopping over the winter and came up with a couple of big names—pitcher Gaylord Perry and outfielder Alex Johnson.

Perry, acquired from San Francisco for Sam McDowell in an exchange of pitching superstars, must assume Sudden Sam's position of leadership of the staff. And he showed he was ready for that challenge with six shutout innings in Cleveland's 8-2 victory over San Diego in an exhibition game Wednesday.

Johnson, the American League's batting champion two years ago, but a washout last season, jolted his second homer of the spring and added a single. And nobody said a thing about his hustle.

Johnny Bench, as might be expected, and Bobby Brooks, as might not be expected, both had two homers apiece on Wednesday's action.

Bench, Cincinnati's slugging catcher, connected twice against Baltimore, driving in three Reds' runs.

Brooks, a non-roster outfielder trying to win a spot with the Oakland A's, drilled his second and third homers of the spring and added a single, driving in four runs in a 12-1 romp over California.

Joe Rudi, Brant Alyea and rookie Greg Schubert also homered for Oakland.

Rookie Carlton Fisk, mired in a 1-for-15 spring slump, snapped out of it with a two-run homer that gave Boston a 2-0 decision over St. Louis—the fifth straight loss for the Cardinals.

The Chicago Cubs managed only one hit over the first six innings but packed nine runs in their last two swings for an 11-2 victory over the Tokyo Lotte Orions.

Shortstop Rick Auerbach collected four consecutive singles as Milwaukee's 15-hit attack wore down San Francisco 9-4.

Johnny Edwards drove in three runs with a single and double as Houston blanked Atlanta 4-0.

Norm Cash and Aurelio Rodriguez cracked home runs and Detroit thumped Kansas City 6-2.

Four Pittsburgh errors—two of them wild pickoff throws by pitcher Jim Nelson—helped the New York Mets to a 9-4 victory over the Pirates.

The Phillies took the Chicago White Sox 8-6, taking control with a three-run sixth inning against Joe Horlen.

Don Sutton and Claude Osteen shared a five-hitter as the Los Angeles Dodgers blanked Montreal 5-0.

The New York Yankees suffered their fifth shutout in 13 spring starts from Minnesota.

Thomas Compares Football, Music

By WILL GRIMSLEY

AP Special Correspondent

DALLAS (AP) — Controversial Duane Thomas likes to compare his pro football career to a symphony—with dissonant, abrupt chords opening the movement but finishing with a theme that leaves the public in "wonder and awe."

"I almost reached the point of putting an end to my career," the normally silent running star of the champion Dallas Cowboys told The Associated Press in an unusual, exclusive interview.

"Art held me back—it being impossible to leave the world of football until I had brought forth all I had felt called to produce."

The 6-foot-1, 220-pound Super Bowl standout traced his life from a black Dallas ghetto through West Texas State College where he suffered discrimination and loneliness and into the hidden treacheries of a big time pro career.

Promising a return to what he called "the highest perfection," he said he would again some day stir the same feelings in football crowds that Beethoven's "Eroica"—or Heroic—Symphony evokes from music lovers.

That's the way Duane Thomas talks. Two months ago they were calling him "The Sphinx." They said he couldn't—or wouldn't—communicate. He became sports' man of mystery.

The interview took place in the neat middle class home of Floyd Iglehart, who coached Duane at Dallas' Lincoln High School and who helped persuade the powerful halfback to give his side of a story involving family tragedies, bitter clashes with the Dallas Cowboys administration and more recently an arrest on a marijuana charge.

Of the marijuana charge, on which he drew a five-year suspended sentence, Thomas merely said, "It's a funny world." He doesn't smoke and close associates insist his drinking is confined to an occasional beer.

Some of Duane's happiest days, he says, were spent at Lincoln High, where Iglehart was his coach.

"There was no way to discriminate there," Thomas explained. "Everybody was black. If I had a problem, I'd go to the coach. That's where it's different from pro ball."

From Lincoln High, Duane got a scholarship to West Texas State in Canyon, Tex.

His coach at West Texas State was Joe Kerbel, whom Duane battled but admired. "He didn't give a damn what color you were as long as you got the job done," Duane said.

Duane was a junior when his father died of cancer. His mother died a year later. Burtrand had three fingers of his right hand chopped off in an accident. Franklin, an older brother, developed serious kidney trouble which resulted in heavy medical expenses.

Duane also was forced to support a wife he had married in high school, from whom he later separated, and two children, a girl and a boy.

"Naturally, I ran up a sizeable debt. Who wouldn't under such circumstances? Several times I started to leave school but Coach Ike (Iglehart) always came over and persuaded me to stay."

Thomas was the No. 1 draft choice of the Dallas Cowboys and was an immediate success, averaging 7.3 yards a carry in his rookie year.

Yet there were clashes with the Cowboys administration, largely due to the Cowboys failure to redress an inferior three-year contract calling for a base pay of $20,000 to $22,000.

"The thing is that my way of living, where I come from, doesn't coincide with everything that's associated with the Dallas organization," Thomas said. "There were personality conflicts, prejudice and jealousy."

"I saw no appreciation from them—for my hard work, my dedication and my sincerity. All of this was being exploited."

Duane called a press conference last July in Dallas at which he sharply criticized the Dallas management. He subsequently was traded to the New England Patriots where he lasted only three days.

Thomas earned a varsity role with the Cowboys in 1971, running for 793 yards and a 4.5 average and scoring 13 touchdowns. He was a hero of the Super Bowl, rolling up 95 yards in 19 carries in the 24-3 victory over Miami.

First Playoff Round

AMES, Iowa (AP) — Prolific Southwestern Louisiana and super-shooter Dwight Lamar will be in the limelight tonight in first-round play in the NCAA Midwest Regional basketball tournament.

The Ragin' Cajuns, playing their first year in the university division, take a 24-3 record and an eighth ranking into the regional opener against fourth-rated Louisville, 22-3.

A pair of unrated teams—Texas, 19-7, and Big Eight Conference champion Kansas State, 18-8,—slug it out in the other game in the new Hilton Coliseum on the Iowa State University campus.

Southwestern finished second nationally in scoring with a 97.8 point mark and upped that regular season average with a 112-101 bouncing of No. 12 Marshall in a regional qualifying game last Saturday.

Southwestern's attack is led by Junior Lamar, who was the nation's leading scorer with a 36.7 average, and 6-foot-9 Roy Ebron, a 61 per cent floor shooter who has averaged 23.6 points and 14 rebounds.

The Cardinals, who had to survive a playoff with Memphis State to make the regional, start an all-senior lineup and have one of the country's top guards in Jim Price.

The Texas-Kansas State meeting will be the second of the season and Texas will be out to avenge an 87-60 defeat suffered in December at Manhattan, Kan.

Kansas is making its third regional appearance in five years, but the Wildcats dropped first round games—in 1968 to Texas Christian and in 1970 to New Mexico State—in the other outings.

Texas tied for the Southwest Conference title and then upset Houston 85-74 in a playoff to make the four-team regional.

Trinity to Get Coach

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Trinity University will have a new head football coach after the former coach said he "didn't get into the coaching profession to coach intramural sports."

The new coach is Warren Woodson, who also serves as Trinity athletic director. He replaces Gene Offield on the gridiron and will retain his post as athletic director.

Staubach Signs for $75,000

By DENNE H. FREEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS (AP) — Quarterback Roger Staubach, doing the negotiating himself, quietly signed a three-year contract for about $75,000 a year Wednesday and began workouts with a hope of taking the champion Dallas Cowboys to Superbowl 7.

"It's not the highest price ever paid a quarterback but I'm satisfied," said Staubach, who is reaping the off-season dividends of being the No. 1 quarterback on a Superbowl champion team.

But Staubach said he is calling an immediate halt to most of his off-season appearances.

"I've got a long future ahead and I don't want to saturate myself with off season appearances," Staubach said. "It can hurt you as an athlete. I've begun working out and by May I'll be going five days a week. I plan to do a lot more study in the off season than I did last year."

Feared He Couldn't Help

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
UNIONDALE, N.Y. (AP) — Rick Barry was saying things like "I didn't want to get into the offense" and "I thought I was hurting the club" after the New York Nets' American Basketball Association game against the Memphis Pros Wednesday night.

You wouldn't have thought Barry had just scored 43 points, including 20 in the final quarter and 31 in the second half. Or that the Nets had just posted their fourth victory in a row and their 11th win in their last 13 outings, coming from behind to beat the Pros 119-112.

The victory clinched a playoff berth for the Nets and moved them within four games of second place Virginia in the ABA's Eastern Division.

In the only other ABA game of the night, the Utah Stars edged the Indiana Pacers 109-108.

The Nets had jumped off to a big early lead, pulling ahead by as much as 31-16 in the first quarter. But Memphis cut the deficit to 58-54 at halftime, tied the score 64-64 in the third period, then went in front by as much as 78-69 in the third quarter.

"I thought I was hurting the club in the third quarter," Barry explained. "I wanted to get the ball, but once I did, the rest of the team stopped moving. That's not the way we've been playing during this winning streak."

But if I hadn't scored 11 points in the third quarter, they might have been so far ahead that we couldn't have caught them. That was the only salvation—the ball was going in the hoop for me."

Zelmo Beaty's basket with seven seconds to go was the margin of victory for Utah. Indiana had led 108-105, but two free throws by Willie Wise moved the Stars within one, then a foul by Indiana's Roger Brown gave Utah the ball and set up Beaty's winning basket.

Wise finished with 28 points and Beaty 20. Brown topped Indiana with 23 points and Freddie Lewis added 22.

Filberts at It Again

By BLOYS BRITT
AP Auto Racing Writer
Auto racing's figure filberts are at it again.

The National Hot Rod Association's 1971 "progress report" lists paid attendance at its 3,122 sanctioned drag meets at 5,346,417.

The NHRA, oldest of the three organized hot rod groups, said it handled 475,311 contestant entries, supervised 2,376,555 timed runs and recorded 3,564,833 miles of competition.

Not only that, for the period 1955 through 1971, the NHRA listed 47,713,248 paid spectators, 4,308,142 contestant entries in its 28,487 supervised meets, and 32,311,065 miles of sanctioned racing.

The progress report boasts of an increase of 598 per cent in sanctioned meets since 1955, and increases of 1,109 per cent in contestant entries and 832 per cent in paid attendance.

The American Hot Road Association, NHRA's chief rival at the moment, though the International Hot Road Association is coming along strong after only a year, hasn't released its 1971 statistics.

Recruiter Presents Appreciation Scrolls

Scrolls were presented today by Staff Sergeant Kenneth W. Garner of the Texarkana Army Recruiting Office to Mrs. Wanda Cox, Executive Secretary of Selective Service local board No. 29, Henry Sinyard Sheriff of Hempstead county, James C. Yates of Ford Motor Co. and Dennis Butler owner of Continental Bus Station all of Hope.

These scrolls are in appreciation for the outstanding support of the Army Recruiting Program as well as Modern Volunteer Army, for the period of November 69 to October 71.

The Sgt. said that these scrolls are presented to persons who over long periods continue to support the Army Recruiting Program by assisting the young men to find out about the many opportunities offered to them. These persons have been instrumental in informing many young men of some of the opportunities offered by the Modern Army and in some cases assisting them to become eligible to enlist in the Army.

Unemployment, Inflation Persistent U.S. Problems

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The two persistent domestic economic problems in the United States are inflation and unemployment, which invites the question: Are they permanent aspects of our wonderfully wealthy, relatively unregulated economy?

To some extent the answer already has been given in regard to inflation, which now has been reduced from something above 6 per cent to only 3.6 per cent, but only through the use of extraordinary means.

Wage and price controls were enforced by government only after it had decided that conventional means were unable to cope with the problem.

It now remains to be seen whether inflation will reappear after the elimination of controls. In fact, it remains to be seen if controls will be eliminated.

Meanwhile, nobody can claim that the 3.6 per cent rate is evidence of great success. If maintained, it would cause the dollar to be devalued in the marketplace by 50 cents in about 20 years.

Less radical measures have been used to deal with unemployment, which persists partly because of a peculiar, ironic situation: The number of jobs is rising, but so is the number of job seekers.

One school of thought—and it seems to be expanding—argues that there is a serious mismatch between skills and needs, and that it won't be resolved until better cooperation is achieved between educators and employers.

Another area of great concern is for the chronically

Wants Farm Payments Stiffened

By DON KENDALL
AP Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Paul L. Findley, R-Ill., says he will ask Congress again for stiffer controls on government farm payments because, he says, the current $55,000 lid "is a cruel joke" on American taxpayers.

Findley, who has unsuccessfully pushed for a $20,000 limit in the past, said an Agriculture Department study of 1971 crop set-aside payments shows there was "no significant reduction" in program costs.

A report on the study was submitted by USDA to Congress on Wednesday. It showed the $55,000 per crop limitation to any single farmer last year reduced payments less than $2.2 million.

"The payment limit so far is no limit at all," Findley said. "It is a cruel joke on taxpayers."

Congress, when drafting the Agriculture Act of 1970, included a $55,000 limit on payments under cotton, wheat and feed grain programs. It went into effect for 1971 production.

But the law and regulations allow farmers to split up holdings under various types of partnership arrangements as long as producers can justify the changes.

Also, cotton farmers—recipients of the biggest individual payments—can sell or lease out acreage allotments.

The maneuvers result in many payments being spread out among many different individuals, thus abiding by the $55,000 payment lid, the records show.

In 1970 when there was no restriction, 1,350 farmers collected payments of more than $55,000 each for a total of $138.8 million. Of those about 1,200 were cotton producers who collected $125.1 million, mostly in Arizona, Arkansas, California, Mississippi and Texas, the report said.

Last year, with the limit in effect, 1,046 big-payment farmers "changed their farming interests" so that their subsidies fit into the legal mold. Only 466 of the super-sized farms were directly affected by the payment limitation, the report said.

Scott Scores 11 Points

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Charlie Scott, the league-switching basketball player, says the sport is a business and "I have to look out for my prospects."

Scott, 23, the leading scorer in the American Basketball Association, jumped to the National Basketball Association this week and made his debut with the Phoenix Suns Wednesday night.

The Suns defeated Milwaukee 110-106 with Scott dropping in 11 points.

"When I started in college there was only one league," Scott said, "and even in the beginning of my senior year, I still was leaning toward the NBA. But it was pointed out to me that basketball is a business and I have to look out for my prospects."

"I'd play for free if everyone else would play for free," he continued. "But if everyone else is going to get paid, I figured I should get the most I could get for my services."

Scott called the legal battle over his league jump "very unfortunate."

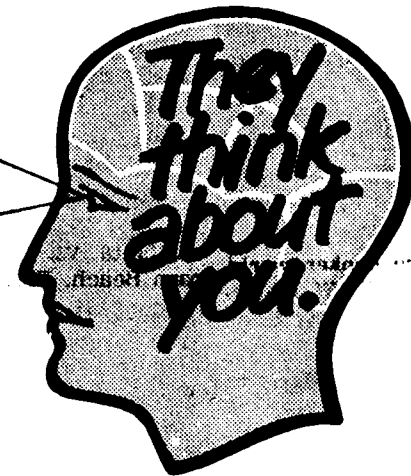

"I sought legal advice before I did it and now I'm taking that advice," he said of the jump from the Virginia Squires to the Suns.

Co-ops Lash Investor Owned Plant Ads

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Rural Electric Cooperative Association has taken a swipe at an advertising campaign by "investor-owned" power companies focusing on taxpayer dollars used to finance the Rural Electrification Administration.

The advertising says "four out of five Americans pay an additional federal tax" through their electric bills. Those who do not, the ads say, "get their electricity from government-owned or government-financed" power systems.

Robert D. Partridge, NRECA general manager, says in a current newsletter that the advertising is a "misleading and unwarranted" attack.

"Neither our rural electric systems, nor the nation, will stand still for these underhanded tactics, which seek to revive acrimonious battles of the past," Partridge said.

Another NRECA official told a reporter the advertising by "investor-owned" companies has been timed in recent years to attract public notice about the time Americans are struggling with federal and state income tax forms.

The federal government has been lending money to rural electric cooperatives through the REA since the mid-1930s. The agency, part of the Agriculture Department, also has been making telephone loans since 1949.

Because REA electric borrowers are organized as non-profit cooperatives, they do not have direct federal income taxes to worry about. That is one sore point with the commercial companies, the NRECA official said.

Another criticism is REA lending itself. As of Jan. 1 this year, the agency had loaned $7.8 billion to electric co-ops. The co-ops had made payments totaling $3.8 billion as of Jan. 1, the REA said.

That included $1.3 billion in interest charges, which have been pegged by Congress at two per cent since 1945. The loans run up to a maximum of 35 years.

Commercial power companies serve more people, by far, than REA borrowers who, for the most part, provide service to more sparsely settled areas.

A report based on 1969 surveys shows commercial power companies that year had more than 49.3 million meter users for an average of 35.5 per mile of line, compared with less than 5.8 million and an average of 3.7 per mile for REA borrowers.

Neophyte, a Greek word for newly planted, was used by early Christians to describe newly baptized or recent converts and later extended to a newly ordained priest, a convent novice and, ultimately, a beginner, according to Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Hamlet's opening bid of four spades will be found in any bridge book even though not in Shakespeare.

Poor Yorick, sitting West, thought of trying a five-club call but decided against it. Luck had never run well for him.

The fair Ophelia studied her cards for awhile. "To slam or not to slam" was her problem. She bid six.

The six-spade call shut off Horatio and poor Yorick opened the king of clubs.

Ophelia put down the dummy and Hamlet, gallant for once, said, "Thank you, my darling."

He started to reach for dummy's ace and then paused for a mute soliloquy.

Was there any harm in taking it? The answer to the first question was only if Yorick could shift to a suit his partner could ruff. The answer to the second was only if Yorick held eight clubs.

Hamlet decided there was something rotten about the club suit and he let Yorick hold the first trick. It was just as well. East could have ruffed the ace and left Hamlet one trick short of his slam.

200th Birthday Party Secrets Irk Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — A believing congressional pro wants to know why the mission planning America's 200th birthday party has been wanted power to stamp its documents "top secret."

Chairman William S. Moorhead, D-Pa., of the House government information subcommittee, asked Jack LeVant, executive director of the American Revolution Bicentennial Commission:

"Did the military-industrial complex in charge of the American Revolution incur huge cost-overruns as they have in all succeeding wars including the current 'cold war'?"

"Did your historians uncover embarrassing errors during the American Revolution which you want to hide behind a secrecy stamp while we are commemorating the 200th anniversary?"

"What other reason can there be for the commission having authority to stamp 'top secret,' 'secret,' and 'confidential' on its documents?"

Moorhead said his subcommittee asked all government agencies to identify those empowered to use stamps to protect national-defense information. Hugh A. Hall, acting executive director of the commission, said LeVant has the authority.

But a commission spokesman, Dan Buser, said: "It has never been and is not the intention of this commission to make anything secret."

Buser said that at no time had the commission requested the need for a secret stamp.

"I've never seen a 'top secret' stamp in our organization since I've been here. I don't recall anyone doing anything secret in the Bicentennial Commission."

Moorhead said in a letter to the commission: "The attitude of the secrecy-minded bureaucrats who think that the American people do not have a right to know the facts of government is implicit in the contention that your agency can wield the secrecy stamps classifying government information."

"The attitude is absurd, but the attitude also is dangerous."

LeVant was out of the country and not available for comment.

Memphis Busing Boycott Keeps 5,000 From Class

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — An antibusing group kept more than 5,000 school children away from school lunchrooms here Wednesday as the Board of Education told U.S. District Court what school busing will cost if it is ordered in the city.

The board, in papers filed in U.S. District Court, said acquiring school buses and operating them would cost from $1.6 million to $5.7 million the first year.

Meanwhile, a lunchroom boycott spearheaded by Citizens Against Busing at 26 mostly white schools brought about a 48 per cent decrease in the number of school lunches usually served.

Assistant School Supt. Ray Holt said 11,000 youngsters are normally fed at the 26 schools. Wednesday, the total was down to about 5,900. He put the loss in cafeteria labor at $1,300.

The antibusing group says the boycott will continue through next Wednesday, less than one week from the March 28 city schools desegregation hearing before Judge Robert M. McRae Jr.

The school board has filed five plans with McRae. The first two, plans "A" and "B", provide for busing about 14,000 pupils in "A" and more than 39,000 in "B".

One other plan provides for less busing than "A" or "B", while the other two would involve no busing.

Plan "A", the school board said, would require 46 buses that would cost more than $1.6 million to buy and operate in the 1972-73 school term.

The requirements of plan "B" would be 172 buses. They would cost more than $5.7 million to acquire and run in 1972-73.

The board did not issue any estimate of what it would cost under the plan proposed by the NCCAP Legal Defense and Education Fund. It calls for transporting more than 61,000 of the city's 145,000 pupils.

Senate Page Girl Has Favorites

By PEGGY SIMPSON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate page girl Julie Price has favorites in the Senate, but she won't say who.

"I don't want them to read about it in the papers because they look at you funny the next day," she says.

Not talking about the senators is something learned the hard way by the pioneer group of girls breaking the all-male barriers in the page corps.

Julie hasn't gotten into any trouble but some of her colleagues have. She doesn't need a boss's reminder not to talk to reporters about peculiarities of the senators.

There are three Republican and two Democratic girl pages.

Julie is one of few to be appointed twice, both times by Sen. Fred Harris, D-Okla. Her first term was between late May and July of 1971. She returned to Bartlesville, Okla., for a fall semester of school and then came back here for another stint as page in late January.

Julie, 17, says, somewhat regretfully, that she hasn't kept a diary.

"I should," she said, "but whenever I think about it, it's about 8:30 p.m."

And that's bedtime, or thereabouts, because she has to get stirring each morning by 4 or 5 a.m. to do last-minute studying for her classes that begin at 6:15 a.m.

She lives in a boarding house two blocks from the Capitol complex and takes her morning and evening meals there, seldom going out except on weekends.

She's finishing her senior year in the page school, cramming in courses in anthropology, American history, government and English before heading for the Senate in hour before each session begins.

"Lot's of people think it's all play and that we're lucky because we don't go to school. But we do and hold a job, too," she said.

Julie says she may pursue a law or sociology career, but whatever it is she's learned a lot about how the government operates from her vantage point as a page girl.

"But right when I think I understand the way things work, I find out I don't," she said, especially the intricacies of parliamentary delay and speedup tactics which have been common in recent debates.

Son Files for Father's Post

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Jim Leon Holsted, 27, of North Little Rock filed Wednesday as a Democrat for Senate District 2.

This is the position that Holsted's late father had been expected to seek. State Rep. Leon Holsted and his wife died in February in what was ruled a murder-suicide by Mrs. Holsted.

Other filings Wednesday:

Rep. Darrell Sam Hasley, 45, of Arkadelphia filed as a Democrat for re-election in District 37.

Rep. Paul Meers, 67, of Little Rock filed as a Democrat for re-election in Pos. 1, District 1.

Rep. Charles W. Boyce, 54, of Dardanelle, filed as a Democrat for re-election in District 29.

Otis Floyd, 44, of Pine Bluff, a self-employed black, as a Republican for representative in Pos. 1 District 54.

Sen. Jim Fowler, 51, of Little Rock for election as a Democrat to a second term in District 4.

Joe Ray, 60, of Havana, a farmer, as a Democrat for the state Senate in District 14.

Frances Rawlings, a Flippin justice of the peace who is a real estate salesman, as a Republican for state representative in Pos. 1 District 43.

Rep. Clovis Bryant, 57, of Van Buren as a Democrat for re-election in District 13.

Carl Collar, 51, a Walnut Ridge farmer, as a Democrat for representative in District 63.

Recluse Still in Canada, Not U.S.

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — A spokesman for Howard Hughes said today the billionaire recluse is still in Vancouver, despite a flurry of rumors that he had returned to the United States.

Richard Hannah made the comment in Los Angeles in response to reports that Hughes had left his hideaway on the top floor of Vancouver's plush Bayshore Inn.

Canadian officials confirmed Wednesday that Hughes had entered Canada at Vancouver International Airport on Tuesday in a Hughes Tool Co. executive jet.

John Jackson, Canadian customs official who checked Hughes in at the airport, said he had no trouble recognizing the billionaire.

"The only change since his last picture is that he is 20 years older," Jackson said.

"His hair style is still the same, but a little thinner and flecked with gray, a pepper and salt coloring. He was clean shaven, except for a light mustache. It was so thin it just looked as if he had missed shaving."

Jackson's description indicated an overnight change in Hughes' appearance, based on an earlier description offered by Turner B. Shelton, U.S. ambassador to Nicaragua.

Shelton and Nicaraguan President Anastasio Somoza met with Hughes aboard the executive jet at Managua on Monday night just before it departed for Vancouver, with an apparent refueling stop in the Los Angeles area.

Shelton said Hughes was wearing his hair short, but that he had a thin beard. He described the board as a Van Dyke that covered his cheeks, "but no thick sideburns."

Shelton also described Hughes' hair, as did Jackson, as having a "sort of salt and pepper appearance."

Money for Conservation

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soil and Water Conservation Service has declared 10 Arkansas counties eligible for accelerated financial and technical aid, Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said Wednesday.

McClellan said plans call for expenditures of $64 million in the 10 counties in the next 10 years on improvements in 38 watershed drainage systems.

He said the counties, covered by the Southeast Arkansas Resource Conservation and Development Project, are Arkansas, Ashley, Bradley, Chicot, Cleveland, Desha, Drew, Grant, Jefferson and Lincoln.

Conway Gets U.S. Grant

WASHINGTON (AP) — A grant of $140,555 to the Community Action Program at Conway, Ark., for a two-month summer Headstart program for 576 children was approved by the Health, Education and Welfare Department, Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said Wednesday.

Militant Agrees to an All-White Jury

By EDITH M. LEDERER
Associated Press Writer
SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — With surprising speed, a jury has been selected and sworn for the trial of black militant Angela Davis. She is charged with murder, kidnaping and conspiracy in the 1970 San Rafael Courthouse shootout in which a judge and three others were killed.

Her attorneys say they accepted an all-white jury because there was no chance of getting a black juror on the panel.

Prosecutor Albert Harris Jr., noting that the panel of eight women and four men includes a Mexican-American, labeled totally untrue defense charges that the state would accept only an all-white jury.

Both sides surprised newsmen and court spectators Tuesday by accepting a jury after only nine days of jury selection. The attorneys had predicted earlier that the job would take five or six weeks—and the defense had questioned whether it would ever find 12 people to determine Miss Davis' guilt or innocence.

Miss Davis, a Communist party member, faced the men and women who will judge her and announced the defense's acceptance of the panel. She said:

"Although I cannot say that this is a jury of my peers, after much discussion we have reached the conclusion that the women and men sitting on this jury will put forth their best efforts to give me a fair trial."

Harris then announced the prosecution's acceptance of the panel. He said later that both sides had agreed to accept the jury during a private 45-minute session in the chambers of Superior Court Judge Richard E. Arnason.

Immediately after Arnason swore in the jurors, the attorneys started the process of selecting four alternates. This is expected to take the rest of the week.

Testimony and opening statements could begin as early as next Monday, but court sources indicated they may be delayed until March 27 to give attorneys additional preparation time. The trial is expected to last four months.

The jury is composed primarily of a middle-age working people. The youngest juror is a 22-year-old collection clerk, the oldest a retired librarian in her late 60s.

Santa Clara County had sent questionnaires to more than 5,000 prospective jurors for possible service at Miss Davis' trial. The 12 seated were chosen from the first panel of 150 called.

Stuffed Cabbage Delight

By AILEEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor

Stuffed cabbage balls offer a change of pace meal that is filling. The cabbage is stuffed with either ground pork, beef or lamb and rice and cooked with a tomato sauce. The tangy combination is just right to wake up the taste buds. For those who like it, serve a dollop of dairy sour cream atop the cabbage balls.

STUFFED CABBAGE BALLS

- 1 head cabbage
- 4 slices bacon, diced
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1 cup cooked rice
- 1 pound ground pork, lamb or beef
- 1 egg, beaten
- 1/4 teaspoon poultry seasoning
- Salt and pepper
- 1 can (1 pound) stewed tomatoes
- 1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
- Dairy sour cream, if desired

Cut core from cabbage.

Stuffed cabbage balls with tomato sauce wake up appetite.

Invert head into a kettle of boiling water. Let stand 20 minutes. Remove. Gently separate leaves, drain on paper towels. Heat pressure cooker, add diced bacon. Sauté onion. Turn into a bowl with rice, ground meat, egg and seasonings. Mix well. To make the balls, put a small leaf inside a large leaf, spoon 2 or 3 tablespoons filling in center. Place the filled leaves in center of a damp towel or napkin, bring leaf corners together and twist firmly. Repeat until filling is used up. Tie balls with a piece of soft string. Place stewed tomatoes and tomato sauce in pressure cooker. Arrange the cabbage balls in the sauce. (Do not fill cooker over 3/4 full.) Close cover securely and cook 20 minutes. Cool cooker at once. Serve hot cabbage balls with sauce and topping of dairy sour cream, if desired. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Consumers Doubt Phase II

By GAYNOR MADDOX

Uncertainty, that is the increasing factor in today's living. Apply it to the food we must buy and eat and you will find this:

- Rising food costs with no end in sight.
- Growing market for so-called organic foods (a craze or conviction?).
- Controversies over labeling of food products.
- The steadily increasing influence of consumerism.
- The question of Phase II controls.

Generally, I'd say Phase II is too indeterminate. It has people guessing about it. They seem to lack faith in what it can do. They see too many exceptions, too many permitted price rises even though it is supposed to halt them," reports Roger Murphy, N.Y. Metropolitan director of cooperative extension, Cornell University.

According to government propagandists, population will increase this year, but not at so great a rate, consumer incomes are expected to increase (ask the unemployed about that promise) and the economy is expected to make further recovery during the year ahead.

The immediate fact of life, however, is that the supermarket price for a basket of food has jumped 4 1/2 percent. Beef is the bellwether of this unhappy march.

Murphy continues: "The test of controls will come this spring. I am doubtful about the effect of higher beef and pork prices, which are not controlled, on prices of other foods. Something may give. Then everything in the food store will jump even higher."

He sees some degree of consumer resistance. Housewives are shifting to less costly items.

"For awhile at least, they are buying eggs and chickens instead of more expensive beef."

If a woman still shops within her family budget she is bound to bring home fewer of the things she actually wants.

"But there are exceptions. Private brands (the store's own brand) of canned fruits and vegetables are cheaper. Cheaper but just as good as a rule as the expensive highly advertised brands of well-known producers," he says.

Breakfast cereals are another example. The big four, Kellogg's, General Mills, Quaker Oats and General Foods, can use their huge budgets to buy up all TV space and shut out the smaller competitors. They control the market. And charge unreasonably higher prices, Murphy says.

"Several housewives report they are now buying relatively unknown brands of cereals at much lower prices. And liking them just as well," Murphy says.

"About milk and eggs. We will have fewer laying hens but more eggs because the old hens have been disposed of. There will be fewer milk cows but more milk. Not much but more."

Irish Bomb Kills 2 British Experts

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Two British army experts were blown up Wednesday night as they tried to defuse a bomb planted in a parked car in a Roman Catholic district of Belfast.

Sgt. Christopher R. Cracknell and Arthur Butcher dismantled two bombs, then died in a sheet of flame as a third exploded in their faces.

Removal of their shattered bodies was delayed by sniper fire, the army reported.

Cracknell and Butcher were the 10th and 11th soldiers killed this year of the 15,000-man British force in Northern Ireland. The total recorded death toll in the 31-month upheaval now is 275.

Expectations continued of Protestant retaliation against the guerrilla war being waged by the Roman Catholics of the Irish Republican Army.

The Times of London reported that Catholics feared the long-predicted Protestant backlash would start this weekend, with Saturday "consistently rumored as the possible day."

Residents of Catholic districts in Belfast were reported stockpiling canned food, and IRA units were collecting their weapons in secure areas, the paper said.

The Times quoted an "informed Protestant": "The latest word I have is that something is going to happen in the middle of March. One cannot expect the Protestants here to keep quiet much longer. They are on the boil."

The British government's long-awaited political proposals for Northern Ireland were again delayed until at least next Wednesday, after Prime Minister Edward Heath meets then with provincial Premier, Brian Faulkner in London.

Aged Becoming Younger

By C. G. MCDANIEL
AP Science Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — A psychiatrist says adolescents are becoming old younger. He advises parents of teen-agers to "get off their backs."

"If you haven't got inside your children in the first 12 or 13 years of life, you never will," says Dr. E. James Anthony, a St. Louis psychoanalyst.

Parental pushing—especially in the middle class—to have children achieve more and more at younger and younger ages is responsible in part for the psychological exhaustion of adolescents, making them depressed and bored, he said.

Anthony, a native of London, holds faculty appointments at Washington University at St. Louis.

Innocent Plea to Murder

DEWITT, Ark. (AP) — A plea of innocent was entered Wednesday in Circuit Court here for Larry Mannis, 17, of DeWitt on a charge of first-degree murder.

At the same time, Judge Joe Villines denied a motion for bond to be set for Benny Ray West, 16, of DeWitt, who has been in jail since November 1970 on a charge of first-degree murder.

In a hearing on the motion, Pros. Atty. Sam Weems of Des Arc said he would ask that the bond be set at $100,000 if the defense motion for bond were granted. Defense counsel said that would, in effect, be no bond at all.

The charges stem from the shooting death of Jimmy Wayne Wampler, 27, of Wynne, a farmer who died of a 16-gauge shotgun blast in the head.

Joe N. Kagebien, 16, of DeWitt has been convicted and sentenced to die in the case. He has appealed the verdict.

Teddy Ray Kittler, 16, of DeWitt also was convicted on a first-degree murder charge in Wampler's death and sentenced to life in prison. He did not appeal.
